SALARY / FINAL PAY CLAIM

1 November 2026

RE: CLAIM FOR UNPAID SALARY / FINAL PAY

Dear Savannah Tech Solutions Ltd,

I, Jane Wanjiku Mwangi, formerly employed as Software Support Associate, hereby formally claim the sum of KES 84500 owed to me by Savannah Tech Solutions Ltd.

The amount claimed is made up as follows: Unpaid salary for March - May 2026 and 30 days notice pay after termination without notice.

Payment was due on 2026-10-15. Despite the due date passing, the amount has not been paid.

I request that the outstanding amount be paid in full within 7 days of your receipt of this letter.

I have kept my employment contract, payslips, and related messages as records of the amounts due. If the matter remains unresolved within the stated deadline, I reserve the right to report it to the Ministry of Labour and Social Protection and to pursue any other remedy available under Kenyan employment law.

Yours faithfully,

Jane Wanjiku Mwangi

HAKI AI

DISCLAIMER: This document was generated from a fixed HAKI AI template and provides general legal information only. It does not constitute legal advice and does not create a lawyer-client relationship.

HOW THIS DOCUMENT WAS MADE

User-provided facts: the names, dates, amounts, and descriptions you entered above.

Template language: standard drafting text from a fixed HAKI AI template not legal advice and not a statement of law.

Verified authorities: the Legal References section below the only statements of law in this document.

LEGAL REFERENCES (SOURCE-GROUNDED)

General legal information only - not legal advice. Consult a licensed advocate of the High Court of Kenya.

Each authority below was retrieved from HAKI AI's verified repository of Kenyan legal sources. These are the ONLY legal authorities cited in this document.

Employment Act, 2007 (Act No. 11 of 2007), Sections 41, 43 and 45 (see source) Fair reason and fair procedure before termination. Relevance: Requires a valid reason and fair procedure before termination; the employer must prove the reason. Confirm the sections in the source text. Source: https://kenyalaw.org/akn/ke/act/2007/11/eng@2022-12-31 (Verification: sourced-pending-fulltext-check; repository record retrieved 2026-10-12; source version 1, last checked 2026-10-12.)

Employment Act, 2007 (Act No. 11 of 2007), Sections 1920 (payment of wages; see source) Time and place for payment of wages. Relevance: Requires wages to be paid at the agreed time and place; wages payable for a monthly period are payable within seven days after the end of the period. Confirm the operative wording and any amendments in the source text. Source: https://kenyalaw.org/akn/ke/act/2007/11/eng@2022-12-31 (Verification: sourced-pending-fulltext-check; repository record retrieved 2026-10-12; source version 1, last checked 2026-10-12.)

Employment Act, 2007 (Act No. 11 of 2007), Section 35(5) (see source for subsection) Service pay on termination in specified cases. Relevance: Addresses service pay rates where that section applies. Confirm applicability and current rates in the source text. Source: https://kenyalaw.org/akn/ke/act/2007/11/eng@2022-12-31 (Verification: sourced-pending-fulltext-check; repository record retrieved 2026-10-12; source version 1, last checked 2026-10-12.)

Full authoritative text: follow the source links above on Kenya Law. The relevance notes are descriptive summaries only they are not quotations and must not be relied on as the text of the law.

ADVOCATE REVIEW REQUIRED

Ask an advocate to confirm which amounts are actually due (unpaid wages, notice pay, leave pay, or service pay) for your specific contract and termination.

Unresolved employment claims may be reported to the Ministry of Labour and Social Protection or filed before the Employment and Labour Relations Court confirm the correct route for your situation.

Ask a licensed advocate of the High Court of Kenya to confirm the applicable law and review this document before signing, sending, or relying on it.

General legal information only - not legal advice. Consult a licensed advocate of the High Court of Kenya.